EASLEY REAPPOINTS BUTLER AND BOLDT TO ADVANCED ENERGY CORPORATION

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has reappointed Alan Butler of Guilford and Donald B. Boldt of Kinston to the North Carolina Advanced Energy Corporation.

Butler has been a board member since 1989. He is the vice president of client services for Weaver Cooke Construction and serves on the Piedmont Craftsmen board of trustees. He is also a member of the N.C. Association of Non-Profit Homes for the Aging, N.C. Economic Developers Association and American Association of Homes and Services for the Aging.

Boldt has been a member since 1994. He is currently retired. Previously he was a part-time lecturer at the School of Business at East Carolina University, where he was later appointed assistant dean for graduate programs. Since his retirement in 1999, he has continued as a part-time lecturer and consultant. Boldt received a bachelor's degree from the University of Iowa and a master's degree in business administration from Harvard Business School.

The board aids the Advanced Energy Corporation in the development of projects and policies to promote energy efficiency and explore alternative sources of power. The board consists of 12 members, each serving 3-year terms. The governor appoints eight members.
